

How are division and multiplication related?

They both have the same numbers if you put them in a fact family.

$$-1\frac{1}{2}$$

You can use 3 numbers to make a related multiplication and division problem. Remember multiplication and division are inverse operations.